When is the next election?

This is a question we are hearing more frequently as voters begin looking ahead to a new year. A General Election is held in November of every even-numbered year. The Primary Election is held 10 weeks before the General Election for purposes of nominating party nominees to be voted for in the General Election to fill a national, state, county, or district office. The election dates for 2018 are:

Primary Election: August 28, 2018

General Election: November 6, 2018

Eligible individuals can register to vote at any time. The deadline to register in order to participate in an upcoming election is 29 days before the election. The deadline for Party Affiliation changes is also 29 days before an election. The registration deadlines for 2018 are:

Primary Election: July 30, 2018

General Election: October 9, 2018

Newly Registered Voters

November 181

Did you know?

Once filed, with few exceptions, all voter registration information is public record including your name, address, date of birth, party affiliation, phone number and email address. Your social security number, your driver's license number or state identification card number, and the source of your voter registration application cannot be released or disclosed to the public under any circumstances, and can only be used for voter registration purposes. Your signature can be viewed, but not copied. Section 97.0585, Fla. Stat.

Your voter registration information may not be publicly disclosed or made available, provided:

You are or become a participant in the Attorney General's Address Confidentiality Program for victims of domestic violence and stalking. See section 97.0585\(3\) and sections 741.401-741.465, Florida Statutes. Contact the Attorney General's Office's Bureau of Advocacy and Grants Management at 850.414.3300 for instructions on how to become a participant.

You submit a written request to each agency that may have your information such as your address, photo, and date of birth. However, you must fall within one of the statutorily designated classes of high-risk professionals. Please refer to the Public Records Exemption Request form and follow instructions to submit the completed form to the Florida Department of State.

Public information finds its way onto the Internet by individuals and entities that obtain public records from the State. Once information is in the public domain, you will need to contact the owner or administrator of those sites in order to get the information removed.

*Bobby Beasley and staff wish you a wonderful season of joy! It has been our privilege to serve you
this year, thank you!*
